May 1-4

Celebrating COA's 50th Anniversary

Join us at the largest Orthopaedic Meeting in California

Dear Exhibitor

The California Orthopaedic Association (COA) Annual Meeting/QME Course will be held May 1-4, 2025 at the Hilton Universal City in the Hollywood Hills, Los Angeles, CA.

Thank You to the many exhibitors that supported COA at this year's meeting. We had a great turn out of attendees and technical exhibitors.

COA prides itself on being the largest California-based Orthopaedic meeting in the state with over 2,000 orthopaedic surgeon members statewide.

The Annual Meeting/QME Course provides valuable CME hours for our members and opportunities for them and their practice managers to interact with companies that work with them in their practice and the care of their patients.

We greatly appreciate your continuous support and look forward to seeing you in Hollywood in May!

Sincerely,

Raymond Raven MD, MHCI, MBA
COA President

Exhibitor Agreement

General

All applications for space must be submitted on an exhibitor application. California Orthopaedic Association (COA) will make every effort to assign a space in your requested area. Space is assigned on a first come basis. COA may, at its discretion, accept or reject any application for space, and reserves the right to relocate or reassign exhibit booths at any time. Space assignments are contingent upon a timely receipt of application with payment, the size of exhibit space requested, physical layout and characteristics of the exhibit hall, compatibility of exhibitors, and other factors (such as overall support of the meeting) as determined by COA. Booth assignments will not be released to company until COA has received full payment for booth sponsorship. The exhibitor agrees to accept the space assigned, moving booths during the meeting without COA approval is prohibited and will result in expulsion from the meeting. COA reserves the right to modify the assigned exhibit space and make changes to space assignments should it be necessary.

Terms of Payment / Cancellation

Prices of exhibit booths are listed on the exhibitor application. Applications for each exhibit space must be accompanied by payment of the exhibitor fee in the form of a credit card payment or check made payable to California Orthopaedic Association. Should any contingency prevent COA or the exhibition from occurring, COA shall not be held liable for any expenses incurred by exhibitors. If COA receives written notice of space cancellation prior to January 1, 2025, a 50% refund of the total booth fee will be made, or 100% of the fee may be applied to next year's meeting at the company's discretion. Cancellations after this date will result in the forfeiture of the total fee. Notice of cancellations must be submitted in writing.

Liability

Exhibitor assumes full responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, save and hold forever harmless the COA, their employees, agents and contractors against all claims, losses, and damages to persons or property (including theft, misappropriation or loss of property, or any other losses), governmental charges or fines, and attorney fees arising out of, or caused in connection with the COA Annual Meeting including, but not limited to, exhibitor's installation, maintenance or removal of the exhibit, exhibitor's occupancy or use. COA will not be liable for any damages in the event that performance of this contract is rendered impossible for any of the following causes: destruction of the exhibit hall or any substantial portion thereof by fire, earthquake, the elements including a pandemic, a public enemy, strikes or other public disorder; impossibility of performance created by lay or any public authority; and/or for any cause beyond its control or the control of the Hotel/Conference Center.
